FAMILY SERVICES

TRAINING DESCRIPTION

The three-day training will focus on understanding the philosophy of nurturing parenting, assessing high risk parenting beliefs and environments, creating competency based parenting lessons and programs tailored to meet the individual parenting needs of families, and implementing programs at the primary, secondary and tertiary levels of prevention.

Participants will experience a hands-on approach to implementing home-based, group-based and a combination home-based/group-based program model.

Participants will learn how to administer and score the online versions of the Adult-Adolescent Parenting Inventory (AAPI-2) and the Nurturing Skills Competency Scales (NSCS), and how to select the best Nurturing Program model for your agency.

Participants will also learn how to monitor the success of families through on-going process evaluation strategies designed to measure the attainment of parenting knowledge and skills.

Learn how to implement the evidence-based Nurturing Parenting Programs to meet the specific parenting needs of families.

What participants are saying ...

- I have a better understanding of the mission of the programs. If you put meaning behind a program, it seems to have a better chance of success.
- For professionals, it is also a personal growth experience.
- This training had a lot of laughter and so much information.
- Extremely helpful in constructing evidence-based programs for our foster parents and youth in care.
- The entire training was not only helpful for work but for my personal life as well.
- I particularly appreciated the flexibility and ability to create customized programs to meet the unique needs of each family. I am very excited about the competency-based lessons and sessions.
- I learned the importance of customizing everything in order to meet the needs of the families we serve.
- I learned how to individualize each parenting program as to have the least recidivism.
- The three days were full of awakenings and knowledge on behavior strategies and evaluation.

Stephen J. Bavolek, Ph.D.

Dr. Bavolek is the principal author of the Nurturing Parenting Programs, the Adult-Adolescent Parenting Inventory (AAPI-2) and the Nurturing Skills Competency Scales (NSCS). He is also Executive Director of the Family Nurturing Centers, Inc. Born and raised in Chicago, he has spent his professional career spanning 40 years working with children and teens identified with a wide range of behavioral/emotional disorders, and families experiencing dysfunctional parent-child interactions, including child abuse and neglect.

Dr. Bavolek received his Ph.D. in 1978 from Utah State and developed the Adolescent Parenting Inventory as his doctoral dissertation. He completed a post-doctoral internship in 1978 at the Kempe Center in Denver Colorado working with abused children and abusive/neglecting parents. In 1983 he began work on the development and validation of the Nurturing Parenting Program through a grant from the National Institute of Mental Health while an Associate Professor at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. The Nurturing Parenting programs were first published in 1985 as the first validated, family-based parenting program targeted specifically for families experiencing child abuse and neglect. He has received numerous awards, conducted over 1,000 workshops, and authored parenting programs, DVDs and educational games.
