

Nurturing Parenting

Three-Day Facilitator Training with

Ana Romero

Nationally Recognized
Trainer/Consultant #157

The training includes 12 CEUs for LCSW, LMHC & LMFT without additional cost.

The Nurturing Parenting Programs meet and exceed the Six Protective Factors identified by the U.S. Government for the prevention and treatment of Child Abuse and Neglect.

The Nurturing Parenting Programs are proven, evidence-based, family focused programs first implemented in 1985 and recognized by national and state agencies for their effectiveness in preventing and treating child abuse and neglect.

In this Three-Day engagement training participants will focus on

- The Philosophy, Principles and Characteristics of Nurturing.
- Impact of Maltreatment on Brain Development.
- Five Parenting Constructs of Abuse/Neglect.
- Nurturing Program Assessments.
- Facilitator's skills to implement the program
- How to Implement Home & Group-Based Models.
- How to monitor the success of families through on-going process evaluation strategies designed to measure the attainment of parenting knowledge and skills.

Meet The trainer, Ana Romero, LCSW

Ana has been involved with the Nurturing Parenting Programs since 2005 and become a National Trainer/Consultant in 2009. Ana got her master's in Social Work in 1993 and become a Licensed Clinical Social Worker for the state of Florida in 2002. She has a private practice where counseling is provided to individuals and couples. Besides being a trainer for the Nurturing Parenting Programs, Ana also provides workshops on topics such as Postpartum Depression, Stress Management & Grief. She is also a Maternal Mental Health Consultant. Ana is bi-lingual in Spanish.
